

Place Evaluation Workshop

Sample Visual Concept Plan

This concept plan was developed during the reporting out phase of the Place Evaluation Workshop in Richland, Wash. A designer or person with artistic talents could quickly sketch recommended improvements on a wall-mounted base plan as they are suggested by workshop participants. The result is a cartoon-type vision plan that captures the full range of possible improvements that can be used to develop the short-term action plans and prioritize the enhancements to be implemented.

